dedication

A spontaneous vote by the senior class chose a most meritorious person for the 1958 dedication. His twenty-seven years of loyal and energetic service as coach, teacher, and advisor proves him to be the true "Spirit" of S.H.S." His position in our school is the spark that sets all branches of our educational program into operation. This is why the senior class proudly dedicates their yearbook to Principal Robert Miller.

sturgensian staff

Here is our 1958 Sturgensian. It represents nine months of hard work by the entire Sturgensian staff, under the capable direction of our advisor, Miss Whitelock. Our yearbook's pictorial history was done by our Staff Photographer, Mr. Roy Niles. As you leaf through this yearbook, we hope it brings back many happy memories of your 1958 school year.

To the Senior Class of 1958

As President of the Board of Education, it is again my pleasure on behalf of the entire Board, to wish the Seniors success in the future and to congratulate the class upon their graduation.

You are going to be faced with new responsibilities very soon and it is the hope of all Board members that you have learned through your school training to assume these responsibilities.

God bless each and every one of you. We all wish you the best of luck in your chosen careers.

administration

Mr. Fudge, SUPERINTENDENT

Heading the administrative department this year is Mr. Warren J. Fudge, Superintendent. Prior to becoming superintendent of the Sturgis Public Schools, he served as superintendent of the White Pigeon Schools. Superintendent Fudge, with his staff of Miss Bensing, Mrs. Quirin, and Miss Lutz, handles the business transactions for Sturgis High School and the bookkeeping for the Board of Education. They also order and receive supplies, handle extra-curricular activities and class accounts, and distribute the mail and payroll.

Mr. Robert Miller is the principal of the seventh through twelfth grades at Sturgis High School and with his secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Freeland, supervises all administrative details. Among these details are scheduling of extra-curricular activities, checking of absences and tardiness, and generally keeping everything on an even keel. During the summer they are busy tying up loose ends and preparing the next year's schedule.

There were 150 in this year's Junior Class. Their class officers were Sam Welty, President; Judy Bothamley, Vice-President; Barbara Briggs, Secretary; Jill Freeland, Treasurer; Janet Harrom, carry-over Student Council Representative; and Chuck Barnell, the Student Council Representative elected this year.

Their main source of income is selling food at the concession stands during the football season and selling schedule pencils during the basketball season. In the spring the class presented the annual Junior Play, and later the J-Hop in honor of the Seniors.

Last fall, the sophomore class of 1958 held their election. The results revealed: Robert Forrest, President; Dan Gerow, Vice President, Linda Dibble, Secretary; Pot Porter, Treasurer; and Soundra Potter, Student Council Representative for two years. Mary Finley was the hold over Student Council Representative from last year.

The sponsors of this prosperous class are: Mr. J. C. Perry, Mr. Hugh Tyler, Mrs. Alta Anderson, Mr. Cecil DeHaven, and Mrs. Helen Bitner. Mr. Perry is the acting chairman. The sponsors advise at all class meetings, parties, and other class functions.

As in past years, the class earned money by checking hats and coats at all home basketball games in the alumni room. Another project was the sponsoring of a spring dance.

The class of 1962 was the largest in our high school this year. The enrollment included 221 students! The President was Tom Smusz; Vice-President, Ron Kreps; Secretary, David Grabe; Treasurer, Rudy Quinn; a carry-over Student Council Representative from last year, Sally Sites; and two-year Representative, Dennis McCarthy.

The class sponsors were Mr. Harold Bowdish, chairman, with Mr. Robert Tripp, Mr. Lou Lari, Mrs. Eva Wheat, Mrs. Nancy Grant, and Mrs. Virginia Ash. These faculty sponsors advised the class in their plans for dances, parties, pep meetings, and other projects. Many freshmen boys were responsible for the success of our reserve football and basketball teams.

An innovation formulating more efficiency and a closer relationship as a class was accomplished through monthly class meetings.

Election returns were as follows: President, Steve Eckert; Vice President, Judy Miller; Secretary, Jack Meyers; Treasurer, Melissa Brebner; Student Council Representative for two years, Harriet Finlay; and the hold-over representative, Kay Forrest.

With their sponsors, Mr. Robert Finlay, Mrs. Mona Reick, Mr. Roger Bates, Mr. Jack Grant, and Mrs. Lenore Moss, they made their annual two-day trip to the "Windy City". Interesting places visited by the eighth graders while in Chicago included the Museum of Natural History, the Board of Trade, the Stock Exchange, and the Museum of Science and Industry. They also were able to see the "Ice Capades". In February they sponsored a dance at the youth center.

This year, one hundred and forty-one students were enrolled in the seventh grade. It was a new and exciting experience for them to pass from class to class, but they quickly adjusted to the procedure.

Among the many interesting activities of the seventh grade this year, was a class party in which they all participated. The officers elected by the seventh grade this year were: President, Ronnie McCreery; Vice-President, Rick Field; Secretary, James Kerchner; Treasurer, Steve Stonehouse; Student Council Representative for two years, Paul Roe; and Representative for one year, Deanna Walker.

The sponsors of the seventh grade class are: Miss Floiad Collins, Mr. David Dillon, Mr. Schuyler Pletcher, Mrs. Mildred Huff, and Miss Mary Anderson.

We hope the seventh graders will enjoy all their years at Sturgis High as much as they did this one.

athletic director

Richard Maher

Richard Maher, who came to Sturgis High School in 1952, has recently been appointed as our new athletic director. Coach Maher received his Bachelor's Degree from Notre Dame. As varsity baseball coach and reserve basketball coach, he strove to impress good sportsmanship and fair play upon his athletes. He has had very impressive records in both seasonal and tournament play. While at Notre Dame, he was catcher on their varsity baseball team.

Under the very capable guidance of Coach Maher, our athletic department will continue its tradition as a very outstanding and efficient part of life in Sturgis High School.

varsity club

The Varsity Club had many projects this year. With the money earned last year, they bought a movie camera and a projector for filming sports events. The club started its activities this year with the sale of ads for the football programs. The football raffle wound up the fall season, and then they sold ads for basketball programs. White basketball uniforms and gold warm-up jackets were purchased along with award ribbons for wrestling matches. At each home basketball game, two boys showed the reserved seat patrons to their seats. The members took in a hockey game during the winter and then climaxed the year with a trip to Chicago.

We give a hearty salute to the 1957-58 cheerleading squads who have done a tremendous job in keeping the student body full of pep throughout the year. At the beginning of the school year they sponsored a dance, "The Football Frolic" which was a big success. The cheerleaders sold pompoms at a few football games, and at the Homecoming game they sold mums. This was done to raise money for their new uniforms which arrived in the middle of the year. Varsity's new uniforms are sweaters with a different emblem, new collars, their own name on the back of their sweater, orange tights, and black skirts. The reserve squad may be distinguished from the varsity in that they have last year's sweaters and skirts, orange tights, and their name on the back of their sweaters.

The squads are as follows: Varsity: Judy Van Meter, captain; Mary Finlay, Judy Mustone, Carole Theisman. Reserves: Kendra Johnson, captain; Sheila Keyser, Luann Littlefield, and Adgate Gay. Karen George, who was the alternate, was moved to Adgate's place in the middle of the year when Adgate moved to a different school. Mrs. Nancy Grant was the girls' very capable advisor.

For the past eight years, the Youth Center has been a place of recreation of SHS students. The students feel very fortunate in having such a modern Youth Center.

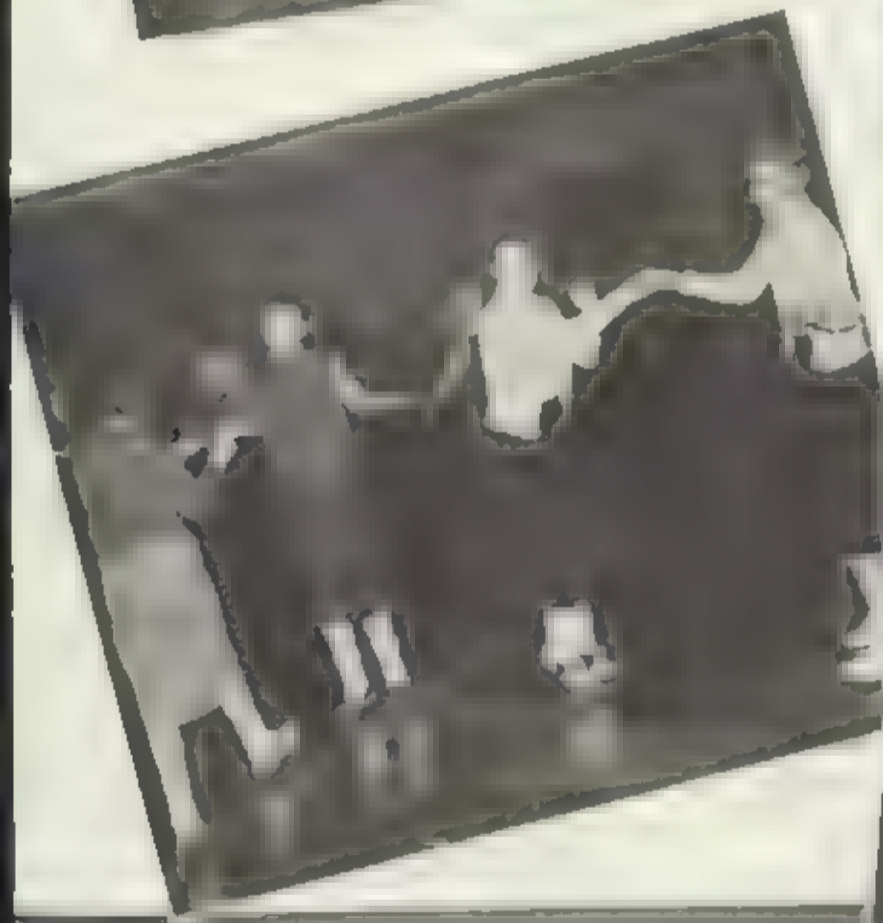

This year the Center was open on Tuesday nights from seven until ten, for Sr. high students and Friday nights from eight until eleven. On Saturday nights from seven until ten, the Jr. high students took over. This year's Christmas formal, "Silver Fantasy," was a big success, with Bobby Wear's Orchestra furnishing the music.

The Youth Center officers for this year were President, Jeannine Baylor; Vice-President, Gordon Adams; and Treasurer, Janet Horrom.

Able supervising the Center is Mr. O. Kribs, assisted by Mrs. Kribs, Mrs. V. Soules, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Casault, Cathryn Kribs, and Mrs. Madeline Packer.

The Library Club, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Polleys, was composed of 16 members this year. Early in the year they elected Audrey Smith, President; Myrtle Rivers, Vice-President; and Mary Condon acting as Secretary-Treasurer. Each member works in the library five hours a week for which they receive a half credit. Their duties include checking out books, keeping the card file up to date, taking care of the magazines, keeping the shelves clean, and helping the students find reference material. For the hard work the members have done, they are rewarded by the social activities in which they participate. Among these activities enjoyed by all was a Halloween party, a Christmas party, and a skating party.

To open the 1957-58 concert season, the band broadcast a series of radio programs live from the Sturgis-Young Auditorium.

This year some of the band members participated in the solo and ensemble contest which is held annually in Kalamazoo. Many of the soloists received top honors which gave them the right to go on to the state contest.

On March 1, the band travelled to Portage, Michigan, for the District Band and Orchestra Festival. Each year bands from all over the state meet at a designated city to compete in this contest. Previous to the contest, the band directors from each city assembled and decided on a required number. Each band was judged on this composition as well as several other selected numbers.

At the end of the season the Band Bust ended a very successful year.

The A Capella Choir has become a tradition of Sturgis High School. It was originated late in the spring of 1951 under the capable direction of Myron D. Casner, director of the choral department. The members, chosen from the chorus for music ability, voice quality, experience, and willingness to work, wear royal blue robes with white collars. Although the choir boasts a membership of thirty, it is somewhat smaller than in previous years, due to the small amount of male participants. Besides engaging in the numerous school festivities such as the spring music festival, the seasonal assemblies, and commencement ceremonies, the chorus has had many outside engagements

The Senior Chorus had another excellent year and as usual there were many old members returning as well as new. They participated in the traditional Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter assemblies, and in the Christmas Concert with the band. The ninth grade girls spent their second year separated from the other chorus as the Ninth Grade Chorus. This system was improvised last year to give the younger singers a year of individual and small group experience before entering the Senior Chorus.

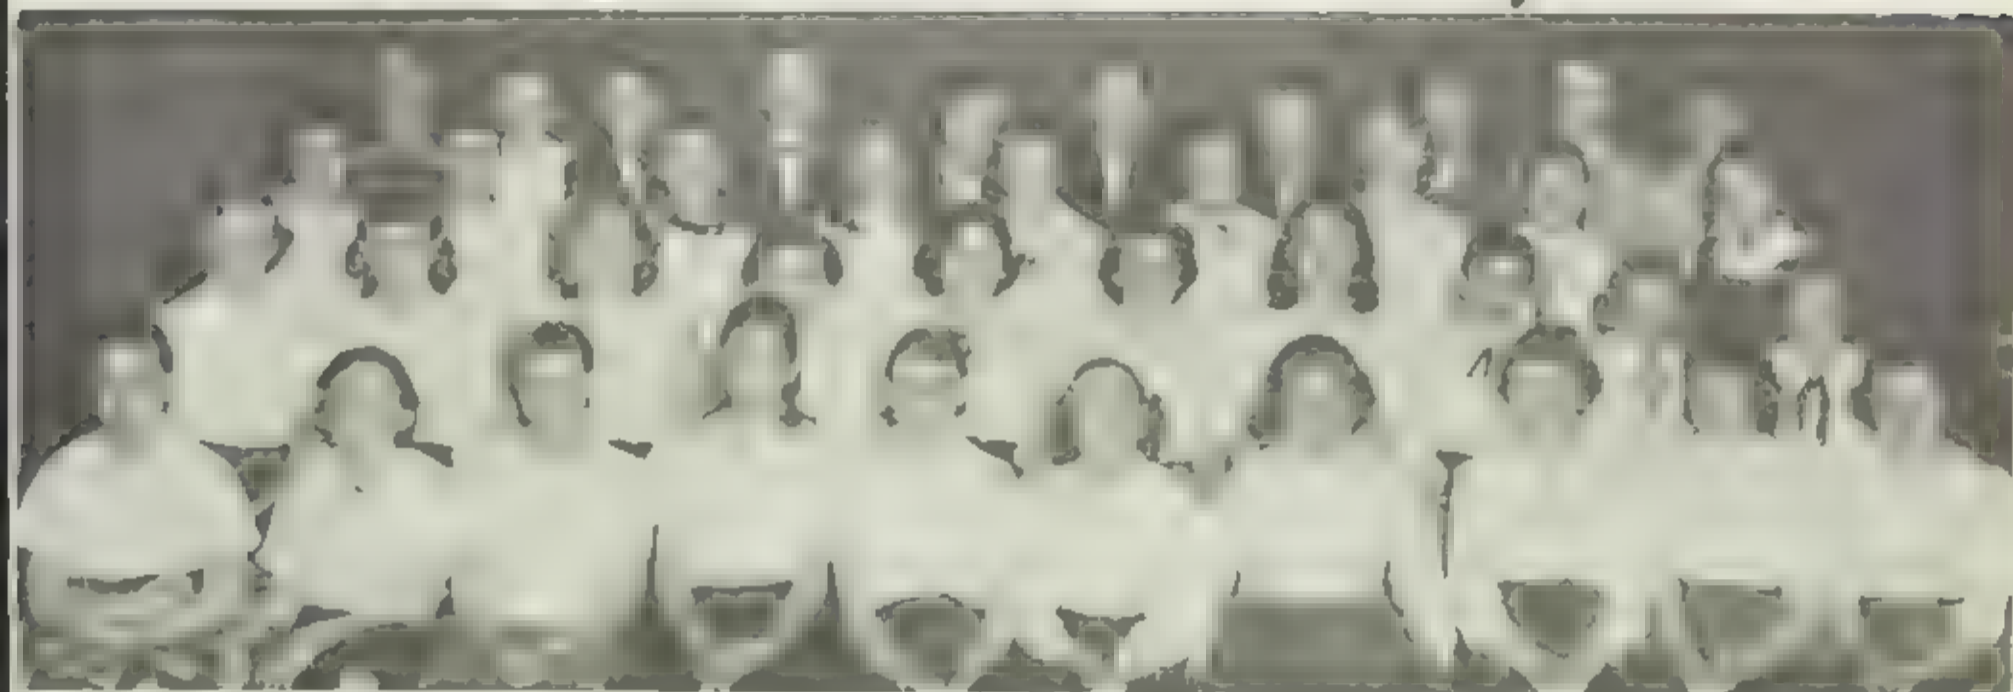

The activities for the year were climaxed by the annual Spring Concert and singing festival in Kalamazoo. Officers this year are: Sherrill Kershner, President; Paul Trehearne, Vice-President; Patty Eckert, Treasurer and Karen Leihn, Secretary.

"This play is called 'Our Town.'"

"Our Town"

Our Town, a play in three acts by Thornton Wilder was chosen by the class of '58 for their junior play. Although this play was unusual and rather difficult to produce because of the absence of both proper ties and scenery, both casts gave marvelous performances. Of course, the success of this play would never have been possible without the patient guidance of Mr. Tyler, our director, assisted by Judy Van Meter, Judy Morrison, and Terry Taylor, his capable staff of student directors.

None of the people who were connected with the play will ever forget the joys and sorrows of the inhabitants of Our Town.

"Mama, do you know what I love most in the world?"

TOOT! TOOT!

"the great big doorstep"

After six weeks of hectic rehearsals under the direction of Mr. Tyler and the student directors, our senior class put on its annual play, "The Great Big Doorstep." The action of the play revolved around a family living in the Bayou country of Louisiana. Mr. Crochet was a ditch-digger and among other problems had trouble with his stomach. Mrs. Crochet carried the burden of a large family—a pair of mischievous twins, a son who left home to drive a fruit truck at New Orleans, a daughter whose only future was working at Woolworth's and her other daughter whom she wanted to become a Nun. Although Mrs. Dupre, the landlady, caused much trouble, the day was finally saved by Mrs. Beaumont Crochet, the florist from New Orleans.

"Balara Noctis" was the theme for the 1957 J Hop. The atmosphere was that of Rome. An arch of green leaves branched over the couples and on each side were park benches and small carts filled with brightly colored flowers. A huge painting of Roman ruins made the setting complete.

Queen Sherrill Kershner was escorted up a green grassy path to her throne, where she was crowned with a sparkling gold crown by the President of the Junior Class, Bob McLaughlin. After taking her place on the throne, her court—Jane Blackburn, Karen Kitson, Diane Potter, and Martha Young—stood on either side of her. She was then presented with a dozen red roses and a gold compact.

Charlie Brown's Band from Albion entranced everyone with dreamy music. During the intermission, Italian punch and pizza was served.

The cosponsors of the fifth annual Homecoming Game were the Senior Class and the Varsity Club. Albion, our opponent, was gloriously defeated by a score of 14-0. Jane Blackburn was chosen by the Senior Class to reign as Homecoming Queen over the evening's ceremonies. Those serving on her court were Diane Potter, Martha Young, Karen Kitson, and Sherrill Kershner.

During pre-game ceremonies, the girls rode on to the football field in three convertibles. After touring the field, the girls were escorted by Varsity football players to the edge of the field, where Tom Hickman, president of the Student Council, crowned Queen Jane with a garland of red roses, and Jerry Keyser presented her with a bouquet of roses. Jane and her court also reigned at the dance following the game. The theme of the dance was "Harvest Holiday" with autumn leaves decorating the gym. The Sturgis Dance Band provided the music for the evening.

Five days a week, from 5:45 to 6:00, Mr. Smith broadcasts over W. S. T. R. On his program, Mr. Smith performs a service to S.H.S. by informing the people of Sturgis and the surrounding area of the activities of our school. Band and chorus music, pep meetings, and assemblies, are all presented on tape. Mr. Smith also interviews faculty members and recaps the ball games. We would like to thank Mr. Smith for his fine job of publicizing the activities of S.H.S.

These are the men who do a wonderful job keeping our school clean. They wash the blackboards, sweep the floors, shovel the walks, rake the leaves, keep the fires going, and clean the desks, among other things which are all in a day's work.

This is a very thankless job and our staff goes about their work uncomplainingly. Their work is taken for granted and we do not realize just what we would do without them. If everyone would do his part the job would be easier.

Thank-you's are in order and as seniors our hats are off, as yours should be, to the janitorial staff of Sturgis High.

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 1958

You have now reached a most important milestone in your life in this great country of ours. Did you realize that your greatest asset in the future will be

YOUR CREDIT RECORD

Today, over 97 percent of all consumer goods sold in the United States are purchased on credit. Therefore, it is essential to maintain a good credit record to enjoy the necessities of life that suit your budget.

The following five rules are used in order to maintain a good credit record.

1. Make all payments when promised, or sooner.
2. If heavily involved, find out about a pro-rata pool program from a CREDIT BUREAU, or obtain a loan to consolidate and clear all debts.
3. If you must miss a payment, let your creditor know why.
4. Always notify all creditors when you move.
5. Never ignore a disputed claim. Talk it over and see if an adjustment can't be made.

Remember my talk to you on February 24th.

GOOD LUCK '58'ers
